Cover Image: “Medicinal History is in Our Hands." Dana Lynn Gibson (B.A. History 2018), a graduate student at California State University, Los Angeles, digitally designed this image based on the notion of medicinal history. This art features a hand holding a bundle of burning sage. For thousands of years, sage has been synonymous with healing and purifying, both physically and spiritually. The smoke from the sage encapsulates the world with the infinite universe in the background.
