DEDICATION

Volume forty-five of Perspectives is dedicated to the memory of Professor Donald O. Dewey. For thirty-four years from 1962 to 1996 he served California State University, Los Angeles with distinction as teacher, scholar, and Dean, first of the School of Letters and Sciences, and then of the College of Natural and Social Sciences. His love of the Constitution, whether in his books or his teaching, was infectious. He always had an encouraging word and smile for students, or even a beginning professor teaching his first class, right up to the tragic fall that took him from us on June 25, 2017.
