LEGAL RELEASE AGREEMENT (NARRATOR)

The mission of the Chinese Community Oral History Project of Greater LA is to document the history of the Chinese Community Los Angeles. A major part of this effort is the collection of oral history interviews with knowledgeable individuals.

Thank you for participating in our project. Please read and sign this gift agreement so your interview will be available for future use. Before doing so, you should read it carefully and ask any questions you may have regarding terms and conditions.

AGREEMENT

I, _____ narrator, donate and convey my oral history interview dated _____ to the Chinese Community Oral History Project of Greater LA AND California State University, Los Angeles. In making this gift I understand that I am conveying all right, title, and interest in copyright to the oral history project/repository. I also grant the oral history project/repository the right to use my name and likeness in promotional materials for outreach and educational materials. In return, the oral history project/repository grants me a non-exclusive license to use my interview through my lifetime.

I further understand that I will have the opportunity to review and approve my interview before it is placed in the repository and made available to the public. Once I have approved it, the oral history project/repository will make my interview available for research without restriction. Future uses may include quotation in printed materials, exhibits and displays or audio/video excerpts in any media and availability on the Internet.

NARRATOR	INTERVIEWER (S)
Name (print) _____	Name (print): _____
Signature _____	Signatures: _____
	_____
Date _____	Date _____

Adapted from Introduction to Community Oral History, Quinlan, MacKay and Sommer, 2013 Left Coast Press
Signed Original to CCOHP-CSULA; copy to Narrator